

PETER AND THE STARCATCHER

CAST LIST

Once again, congratulations to all of you who auditioned! It can be a scary thing to put yourself out there like that and I'm proud of all of you for taking that risk.

This show is truly an ensemble show. Everyone will be on stage quite a lot. If you have a "say yes" attitude, you'll definitely make plenty of appearances. We'll divide up solos for the Mermaid Song next week.

A reminder that rehearsals are 4:30-6:30 Tuesday-Friday next week as we get some basics down. Then we'll move to scene-by-scene work, and you might only be called when your scene is being worked on.

Thanks again for making these decisions difficult and for your commitment to making an excellent production. Can't wait to start next week!
